October First Means Return of Travelers

Leaders of Washington Society Are Closing Their Summer Homes.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The first of October. Always on that date, most of those who have not yet returned from their summer vacations, come back. Most of the diplomatic corps will be here by Sunday or Monday excepting, of course, the French ambassador and Mme. Jusserand, who will not start for these shores until the end of October.

Many of our social leaders have been closing their summer homes for the last few days and are about ready to begin their journey homeward on the coastwise routes. And even those who went to Rio De Janeiro for the opening of the Brazilian centennial exposition, are drifting into town, headed by the secretary of state and Mrs. Hughes. Mrs. C. C. Calhoun, president of the Woman's International alliance, who went down there to establish a Brazilian branch of that organization, is back, and Captain Sidney H. Bailey, naval attaché of the British embassy, and Mrs. Bailey have returned. She was formerly Miss Mildred Brownell, you know. After a short visit here, Captain and Mrs. Bailey will go to England. His successor at the embassy, Captain Francis Tottenham, is due about the middle of the month.

The members of the diplomatic corps have as usual taken the lead in entertaining this week. Among the parties given was one on Wednesday by the Chinese minister, a luncheon in compliment to the former premier of China, Minister Chow Tauchi, and the former Chinese minister of finance, Mr. Luang Kang, who are visiting in Washington. These two distinguished Orientals were also the honor guests at a luncheon given Wednesday by Colonel Richard C. Patterson.

The minister of Persia, Mirza Hussein Khan Alai, was host at a luncheon Thursday in compliment to Arthur Millspaugh, former economic adviser of the state department, for some years today for his new post as head of the American financial commission to Persia. He was economic adviser of the state department for some years.

The minister of Siam, Phya Pracha Karavongse, entertained at a tea on Sunday. The minister of the Serbs, Croats, and Slavs and Mme. Grouitch had a few guests dining with them to meet the new minister who is succeeding Mr. Grouitch, Dr. Tresselt Pavich.

QUAINT GOWN WORK.
The young society girls, particularly at dances, look these days almost as though they were in fancy dress costume, their new gowns being so quaint. In the first place it is difficult to get accustomed to their long skirts, they do look so different from the ones they have been wearing. However, they are all wearing long, ankle length and longer for evening. The bodies are so often tight, darted and long waisted, and the skirts very much hooped, look as though they stepped out of an old picture.

It is not interesting at this season to see the new costumes come out, particularly those worn by women just back from Europe. Mme. Marie Peter, wife of the senator from Rhode Island, is wearing a gown of Morocco satin, one of the very smartest materials by the way—with a draped bodice and surprise bodice joined together to give a continuity of effect, and this same softening idea is repeated on the elbow-length sleeves. With this Mme. Peter wears a medium sized black velvet hat trimmed with ribbon.

BRIDE-ELECT'S GOWNS.
Miss Elaine Taylor, English of Philadelphia and a frequent Washington visitor, whose engagement to Captain Basil Gordon, son of Mrs. George H. Nett, wife of Major General Barnett U. S. M. C., is recent news of widespread interest, wore at a luncheon recently a gown of heavy Morocco silk, embroidered in black wool. With this she wore satin pumps and a large black untrimmed drooping brimmed hat. Another black and white costume of this bride-elect is an evening one of black chintilly lace and ivory white crepe satin. The oval neckline, sleeveless bodice, is formed of a jacket-like effect of the same shade as the skirt is cut in petal effect of the cream crepe satin.

NEW TAILORED SUIT.
Mrs. Henry C. Wallace, wife of the secretary of agriculture, who has just returned from a visit to her Des Moines home, has a pretty afternoon gown of black chintilly lace, made with square neck and elbow sleeves. She wears a black tulle sash with it, and a medium brimmed black velvet hat. Mrs. Anne Gordon, sister of Basil Gordon, is wearing a stylish beige point twill suit made on strictly tailored lines. With it she wears a white silk tailored blouse and sport hat of beige. Mrs. Peter Boelet, formerly of the senator from Rhode Island, and long the most beautiful girl in Washington when she was Miss Townsend, is sporting a costume of violet crepe, featuring a straight neckline, very long flowing sleeves and draped skirt, hanging well to the ankles in points. Her hat is a large violet crepe one trimmed with grosgrain ribbon of the same shade as the gown. Ribbon trimming for hats is particularly fashionable right now.

Mrs. K. Pierce and small daughter, Peggy, of Salt Lake, are visiting in Ogden for two weeks, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Pierce, before going to Valparaiso, Ind., to join Mr. Pierce, who is studying medicine.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stecher have as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hill of Sierra Madre, Cal. The guests, being former residents of Ogden, will be pleased to meet their former acquaintances.

DORIS SOWERBY AND PAUL PATTERSON WEDDED

A charming home wedding was that of Miss Doris Sowerby and Paul A. Patterson which took place Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Bishop James H. Riley of the Eleventh ward performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Sowerby is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sowerby, 2336 Lincoln avenue. The house throughout was pleasingly decorated with autumn leaves and white and red asters.

The bride wore a pretty gown of white ivory satin with an overdress of georgette crepe, with pearl trimmings. She carried a shower of Ophelia roses and baby breath.

Miss Ethel Sowerby, sister of the bride, wore a dress of green canton crepe and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

A. M. Poulsen acted as best man and Mr. Sowerby, father of the bride, gave the bride in marriage.

Following the ceremony a reception was given. Twenty-five guests were present and enjoyed a delightful evening. The dining table, at which a wedding supper was served, was beautifully adorned with roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson left Friday morning for a wedding trip to California. They will be at home in Ogden to their friends about the middle of October.

Mrs. Robert Harlin and Miss Celia Higgins entertained at a miscellaneous shower Monday evening for Mrs. Patterson, at Mrs. Harlin's residence, 313 Twenty-eighth street.

Fall flowers adorned the home, a color scheme of pink and white being carried out.

The friends present were: Mrs. Lila Farley, Misses Celia Higgins, Hilda Lyons, Hazel Mayes, Evelyn Foster, Margaret McQuade, Ruth Stoker, Nora Dunn, Irene Hillard, Luella Newey, Blanch Jorgensen, Mrs. Thomas Sowerby, Nordis Harlin, Leona Harlin and Ethel Sowerby.

The guest of honor was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

NEW GIRLS' CLUB HAS NOVEL PARTY

One of the interesting affairs of the week was the barn party given by members of the Chinwahn club, at the home of Miss Mary Louise Maginnis, 2371 Washington avenue, Saturday evening.

Tiny lanterns illuminated the barn, and profusions of autumn leaves were scattered about. Appropriate refreshments were served. Dancing was the feature of the evening.

Members of the club are Misses Dorothy Brown, Catherine Carr, Brent Dermody, Virginia Kaplan, Dorothy Kaplan, Katherine Krauss, Katherine McCool, Ruth McBride, Mary Louise Maginnis, Marcia Woods. The club members were assisted in serving by Mrs. W. L. Maginnis and Miss Daisy Maginnis.

DANCE GIVEN BY GRADUATING CLASS

The dancing party at which the graduating class of the Sacred Heart academy entertained Thursday evening, was a most successful affair. The senior department was a decided success.

The affair was given in the gymnasium of the academy, with 50 guests in attendance.

Light refreshments were served during the evening. The music for the dancing was furnished by the class orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Christensen and son, William F. Christensen, entertained in honor of Stefano Mascagno, dancer and ballet master of New York. Miss Eva Salomonson, also of New York, a pupil and an assistant of Mascagno, and Miss Jessie Morris of Portland, Oregon, a former student of Mascagno, at the Hermitage, Sunday, September 24. The party was taken for a ride through Ogden canyon to the artesian wells and returned to the Hermitage, where a dinner was served. Profusions of fall flowers were used for decorations.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. William Murdoch, Vern Miller, Jean Robinson, Mrs. Elizabeth Stephens and Miss Lotta Petty, all of Salt Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Christensen of Brigham, and Llewellyn F. Christenson of Ogden.

Mascagno is the principal and ballet master of the American National Association of Dancing Masters. Following a month's instructions in Salt Lake he left Thursday for Portland, Ore., where he will give a month's instruction. From there he will go to New York to reopen his classes.

Couple Wedded At High Noon In Salt Lake

Alice Zundell and Elmer Horrocks United By the Rev. George Davies.

One of the notable weddings of the week was that of Alice Zundell of San Francisco, sister of Mrs. Lawrence Watson, of Ogden, and Elwood Horrocks, of Ogden. The ceremony was performed at high noon Monday, September 25, in Salt Lake, by the Rev. George Davies of the Presbyterian church.

The bride wore a heavy brown crepe de chine gown, trimmed in jade green, with satin slippers and hat to correspond.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Horrocks, parents of the groom, entertained at a dinner in honor of the newlyweds that evening. Fall flowers centered the tables, where covers were laid for a number of immediate relatives and friends.

The bride and groom left for a wedding trip. They will be at home to their friends after November 1 at the Farnsworth apartments.

Wednesday evening Mrs. Lawrence Watson and Mrs. Joseph Horrocks entertained at a miscellaneous shower in compliment to the bride, at Mrs. Horrocks' home in the Brownings apartments.
